Raising Money for Charities....

"Those of you that follow my adventures to date will know that I try to do one activity per year for charity.

I have always been very thankful for what I have in my life and feel that if I can do something to raise funds for worthy charities and also increase awareness publicly, then that is a positive thing. As I am now becoming older I realise that my time to "give back" may be more limited.

In terms of charity work, this is the biggest challenge I have undertaken – of course, physically, but also emotionally & financially"

Selected Charity 1 UNICEF for every child

UNICEF fights for the rights of every child, every day, across the globe. UNICEF works in 190 countries and territories to save children's lives, to defend their rights and to help them fulfil their potential. READ MORE

Selected Charity 2 RMHC

Helping a sick child fight their illness takes a big enough emotional toll on a family. Adding a financial strain can make it all almost too much to bear. RMHC helps address those problems. READ MORE

Selected Charity 3 Macmillan Cancer Support

If you or someone you know has been diagnosed with cancer, Macmillan are there to help. Find out what to expect, get information, practical advice and support, hear from experts. READ MORE

THE 123RD BOSTON MARATHON

Begun in 1897, the Boston Marathon is the world's oldest annual marathon and ranks as one of the world's best-known road racing events. This will be the first one, of 6 World Marathon Majors that Ricky will be running on 16th April 2018

Donations for charity

IFA-ASIA are very proud to have fully funded the costs of the runRICKYrun Project.

All money raised is 100% directly to the charities.

We have been lucky to also find other corporate donators to this project, as well as other supporters to assist Ricky as he begins the adventure in Boston in mid-April.
